

SEA-EU STAFF WEEK

Name of the session	Staff and Education Week in Biology
Hosting Institution	Faculty of Sciences - UBO - Brest
Starting - ending date of the training	25 th - 29 th May 2020
Language	English
Profile of expected participants	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Teachers/Programme coordinators in Biology - Support staff are also welcome to shadow our technical team and join in with different activities.
Maximum number of participants	12 ¹ + max. 3 support staff
Contact person for details:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Karine.Pichavant@univ-brest.fr (Head of Biology Department/teacher/staff week organizer)
Contact person for application :	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Karine.Pichavant@univ-brest.fr
Application Deadline :	Applications are welcome until the 15 th April 2020 but please feel free to apply before that date. Your application should then be confirmed before the 20 th April.
General objectives of the week	Share good practices regarding innovative training in Biology in order to define and develop different types of mobility
Schedule of the training session	See hereafter

- 1- First come first served. We do however wish to see as many of the sea-eu partners represented as possible so we will seek to have a wide range of participants from all the different universities.

SEA-EU STAFF WEEK

Programm Details

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Arrival	Presentations of different members including: University context and available courses.	Workshops on the different strategies, part 1.	Workshops on the different strategies, part 2.	Return Home OR Cultural Day Out
	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Free workshop discussions to define the main strategies to be implemented during the project (Staff/student mobility, virtual mobility, project-based learning, ...). Summary of the discussions. 	Session dedicated to research cooperation with visits of laboratories	Summary of the discussions and setting up of the follow ups.
	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner

